PRESS RELEASE

CHARLES & KEITH redefines the Gabine for Winter 2022

SINGAPORE, 1 December 2022 – For Winter 2022, CHARLES & KEITH takes creative inspiration from preppy academia and elevated athleisure, extending the iconic Gabine family to include jewellery and sunglasses, and giving the collection a bold update destined to be embraced by trendsetters and experimental attitudes.

Drawing upon the aesthetics of American prep and the retro academia, leather heeled boots, pumps, knee high boots, this reimagined Gabine looks towards establishing a modular twist that stands out against timelessness this winter season. Graphical tartans and sensorial textures are injected against mature silhouettes and dark neutrals, creating a concept that carries easy smartness and offers a long-term newness.

The Gabine line has become an expression of elevated essentials in the modern girl's wardrobe, and this new season introduces a white sneaker range that is reimagined for the new generation. The iconic U-shaped buckle comes in a tone-on-tone matte finish on decorative straps – in white, lilac, brown, and black – on low-top and high-top designs that allow the straps' colour to pop, elevating this youthful silhouette and giving it a preppy-skater appeal.

CHARLES & KEITH unveils its new Gabine jewellery range, available in gold, silver, rose gold and an eye-catching gold and silver mix. Bangles and bracelets can be worn in exaggerated stacks of clashing metallics, while the choker and earrings consist of geometric links and the unmistakable Gabine buckle, melding both tough and chic sensibilities. While sunglasses in vivid pastels adds feminine flair.
